

North Texas Orthodox Missions

The Orthodox Church is evangelical, but not Protestant. It is orthodox, but not Jewish. It is catholic, but not Roman. It's not non-denominational - it's pre-denominational. It has believed, taught, preserved, defended and died for the Faith of the Apostles for 2000 years.

ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVES 2016

Marriage and Family: An Invitation to Love

NTOM invites you to join us for our annual workshop this February 26 and 27, hosted at two local churches in the Metroplex. Our guest speaker will be Dr. Philip Mamalakis, who serves as Assistant Professor of Pastoral Care at Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology in Brookline, MA. Dr. Mamalakis received his MDiv from Holy Cross and his PhD from Purdue. He is married to Georgia Lambros. They have seven children.

Both days will include the following two sessions.

Session 1: *Nurturing Intimacy in Our Relationships

Building upon the Orthodox Christian understanding of marriage as a journey of love in Christ, we will explore how God invites us to turn toward Him in and through our relationships with parents, children, friends, and spouse.

Session 2: *Thriving in the Home

It is easy to live our daily lives in the home disconnected from the reality of Church, God, and His Kingdom. In this session we will discuss home and family life as the arena for growing in faith as Christians, and explore how to live our daily lives intimately connected to Christ and His Body, the Church.

The event is free and open to the public! For more information, please visit www.ntom.org. Families are welcome! Please be prepared to care for your children. Child care is not available.
